

MEANINGFUL ART EXPERIENCES

Click the links below for some fun ideas and information about art and play experiences for your child!

Sensory and Play Experiences

- "What's the harm if I paint my arm?": A Toddler's Guide to Sensory Activities in the Home
- Supporting Thinking Skills From 0-12 Months
- Top 10 No-Cost Toys for Infants, Toddlers, and Preschoolers
- Five Essentials to Meaningful Play
- Playdough Power

Art Resources

- Art Talk: Developing Visual and Verbal Literacy
- The Importance of Art to the Development of the Whole Child
- At Home with Makerspaces
- Questions to Ask About Art: Engaging with Your Child's Artwork

Art is a major area of a child's life where he can be himself, explore, experiment, make decisions, and evaluate outcomes, all within the realm of creativity and independent thought.

-Maryann F. Kohl