

Five Senses! (23)

Refrain: We've got FIVE senses, we use everyday.

Five senses,
to learn and play

We use our eyes (point to eye), nose (point to nose), ears (point to ears), and mouth (point to mouth), and our hands to touch (wave hands in the air) and feel things out!

Toddlers: touch each body part when they say it

Babies: Parent touches the babies eyes, nose, ears, mouth, and hands when the word is said

Now listen with your ears...

What did you hear?

Toddlers: say what they hear

Babies: Mothers say what they hear to the babies

Refrain

Touch your hands to the floor...

Toddlers/babies: touch hands to the floor

Now listen with your ears...

What did you hear?

Toddlers: say what they hear

Babies: Mothers say what they hear to the babies

Refrain

Use your eyes to look all around

Toddlers: children look around

Babies: Mothers touch side of babies eye

Our hands can touch the floor

Toddlers/babies: touch the floor

Now Listen...

What did you hear?

Refrain

Our mouth can taste, Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum!

Toddlers/Babies: rub belly

My eyes can look all around

Toddlers: Look around

Babies: Mothers touch side of eye

My hands can touch the floor

Toddlers/Babies touch the floor

Now listen...

What did you hear?

Refrain

Our nose can smell

Toddlers: sniff while pointing to their noses

Babies: Mom's point to babies nose

My mouth can taste

Yum! Yum!

Toddlers/babies: rub belly

My eyes can look all around

Toddlers: Look around

Babies: Mothers point to babies eyes

My hands can touch the floor

Toddlers/babies touch the floor

Now listen....

What did you hear?
